

Britain's Got Talent is coming to Yeovil College!

Britain's Got Talent 2017 auditions are taking place on the Yeovil College campus on the 25 of July from 9:30- 11:30am. Yeovil College/University Centre learners, Local schools, Sixth Forms and staff can audition.

The auditions are open to any age range (under 16s must be accompanied by a parent/guardian) and any talent can be showcased. Each act will have a 5-10 minute time slot, giving you a chance to show off your talent.

Britain's Got Talent is a reality TV talent competition show that started in June 2007. The show is broadcast on ITV and their sisters show Britain's Got More Talent is broadcast on ITV2. Anyone of any age with some sort of talent can audition for the show. Acts compete against each other in order to gain the audience support while trying to win the title of "The winner of Britain's Got Talent".

Two representatives from ITV will be attending, video recording and taking auditions. If you wish to audition please email rebecca.long@yeovil.ac.uk to book your slot.

